GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever feel as though the concept of God's plan for your life feels too distant and abstract to perceive? If you raised your hand, just know I'm raising mine, too. The life of a Christian striving for virtue and closeness with our creator is not always simple! But Moses' words to the Israelites in today's first reading pierce my heart, even centuries after he spoke them: "For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you." Moses is talking to the Israelites about God's instructions that will lead them to the Promised Land, but it's a relevant reminder for us, too. God's command is not some vague message written in the sky, or some ancient code we need to decipher. It is written in our hearts. Our job is simply to return to the Lord our God so that we might understand it. If you ever feel as though God's ways are inscrutable, return to him, perhaps using this particular Scripture. When we call upon God, he always responds. And in his response there is great mercy and love. We are meant to share this mercy and love we receive with others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I think it's natural, in our fallen humanity, to overcomplicate the Lord's commandments. But in the parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus spells it out for us in plain terms: show mercy to our neighbor. How often do we encounter someone in need? Probably daily. How often do we respond with love, generosity, and mercy? This is the question we must ask ourselves. Though the call is clear and concise, the reality is demanding. But Jesus also reminds us that our acts of mercy aren't without merit – they are precisely what will carry us onward to our eternal reward. "Do this and you will live," Jesus says.

REFLECT

Today's readings remind us of our earthly call to love and to serve, and they are also a reminder of God's radical nearness to his people. The call to mercy is challenging. The mission to love is bold. The road to eternal glory is long and narrow. But God is never far away from us on this journey. Take time this week to consider where and how the Lord is speaking to you. How is he inviting you into his mission of mercy? Where is he offering you himself?

CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF

An introduction

We are excited to announce our participation in the Communion for Mission campaign, a vital initiative aimed at strengthening our Church across the Diocese of Cheyenne. This campaign seeks to raise a minimum of $26 million in gifts and pledges payable over a five-year period and $10 million in legacy gifts. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the funds raised (minus campaign costs) up to our parish campaign goal will be returned to our parish to address our local needs as outlined in our parish case statement.

The funds raised through this campaign will be allocated to several important diocesan initiatives, including:

- Strengthening Parishes - $3.75M
- Seminarian Education and Vocations - $3M / $1.5M in Legacy Gifts
- St. Joseph's Society - $1.3M / $2M in Legacy Gifts
- Catholic Charities of Wyoming - $1.25M / $2M in Legacy Gifts
- St. Joseph's Children's Home - $3.5M / $4.5M in Legacy Gifts
- Renewing Infrastructure for Mission - $5M
- Diaconate, Lay Leadership, and Adult Faith Formation - $3M
- Catholic Schools and Youth Faith Formation - $3M
- St. Paul's Newman Center - $2.2M

With your support, we can ensure that our parish is equipped to thrive and fulfill its mission. We invite you to join us in this important endeavor as we work together to strengthen our faith community and the Diocese of Cheyenne.

LIVING AND GIVING 2025

The 2025 annual diocesan appeal, Living and Giving in Christ: Unity through Diocesan Ministries, has begun. Once again, we call on your generosity and ask you to prayerfully consider contributing to this appeal. All funds go towards building the infrastructure of the parishes in our diocese, so each contribution is directly returned to our brothers and sisters across Wyoming. Any gift, however much or little, will make a difference in your parish community. To give online, please scan the QR code.

COMMUNION FOR MISSION

The Diocese of Cheyenne has begun a 5 year capital campaign in which a goal of $26 million is set. The amount collected will go towards strengthening diocesan parishes, priests and seminarians, those in need, renewing infrastructure and enhancing laypeople.

St. Anthonys and the missions have targeted amounts that will be used for capital projects. Everyone from our parish will be asked to support this campaign financially, but meanwhile please pray for its success.
